She loves watching her son or daughter excel in their favorite sport or pastime. She loves moments spent laughing, cheering, loving and creating memories. She loves the challenge of striving for something just out of reach and stretching to attain it. She loves the feeling of dreams fueled by passion, determination and the kind of hard work you feel in your bones. Because life is for the living, the bold, the dreamers, the achievers...engaging the world around them and declaring their reality. She loves the Chicago Blackhawks. One team, one city. We are Chicago.
